Dear Bryce:

I read that Bryce Fastener recently donated solar panel screws for a clinic in Haiti, and I want to thank you for being a part of the rebuilding effort.

While there are still many challenges ahead, I continue to believe that the nation has its best chance in my lifetime to achieve long-term prosperity and sustainability. Your work alongside Advanced Solar Industries is a terrific example of the creative cooperation we need to help the Haitian people build the bright future they so richly deserve.

All my best to you.

Sincerely,

Bill Clinton
